

GGW Monogram

Von Mechow (2015) noted a GGW monogram that he ascribed to the Gayner Glass Works. All three of von Mechow's examples were mouth-blown, champagne beer bottles used for mineral water. The same monogram has been in several eBay auctions on mouth-blown, five-gallon demijohns, all with a "50" (1950) date code (Figures 8 & 9).

Whitten (2015) added: "Monogram, accompanying this glass manufacturer's name and city, seen on an advertising paperweight, reported to me by Bob Berkley."
